The Hocking County Board of Election is filing this complaint at the request of Karla Van Bibber.

Ms. Van Bibber attended a Board of Elections meeting on January 8, 2009 and read the following statement (copy of original statement and newspaper clippings attached).

"To the Members of the Hocking County Board of Elections.

On two or more occasions the Hocking County Republican Party violated Federal and/or State Election Laws by placing ads for Federal Candidates in the Logan Daily News. These two occasions being October 2, 2008 and October 21, 2008.

It is against FEC regulations for a local party to pay for advertising for Federal Candidates.

I, Karla Van Bibber, bring this information before this Board and request that this Board report these violations to the Federal Elections Commission for investigation. I believe failure to do so would be dereliction of your duties you have sworn to uphold"

At this point Rodney Carr, Chairman of the Board of Elections and the Hocking County Republican Party, stated that this should be sent to the FEC. R. Bruce Johnson, Board Member and Chairman of the Hocking County Democratic Party, suggested that the Board wait until after the Campaign Finance reports had been reviewed.

The Board Members then reviewed the Campaign Finance reports, with R. Bruce Johnson stating that the Republican Party had given a donation of $1000.00 to Fred Dailey, candidate to Congress (18th Congressional).

A copy of the campaign finance page is attached.

The Board of Election then voted unanimously that this information be sent to the FEC. The Board of Elections then instructed Sue Wallace, Director to forward this information to the FEC on behalf of Karla Van Bibber.

FORT BRAGG, N.C. — The command, "sound adjutant's call" signaled the commencement of the 82nd Airborne Division's assumption of command ceremony Wednesday as more than 8,000 paratroopers descended upon Pike Field to be introduced and reviewed by their new commanding general.

Maj. Gen. Curtis M. "Mike" Scaparrotti, 52, from Logan received the 82nd Abn. Div.'s colors symbolizing a transferring of authority from old leadership to new, becoming the 45th commanding general in the division's long and fabled history.

"Since the activation of the Airborne Division, you (parers) and your predecessors established a reputation for valence, for toughness and safety in combat that is recognized around the world," said Scaparrotti. "Those who wear the 'Double A' patch are respected by our allies and feared by our enemies."

Scaparrotti said the number one challenge he faces as the new commanding general is taking care of troops and their families. He also mentioned plans to be executed immediately regarding the future of the division.

"The future of the division to reset, take care of soldiers' families, be well trained and get ready to go for the next deployment," Scaparrotti said.

Scaparrotti is no stranger to the division he now commands. He began his Army career as a platoon leader in 3rd Battalion
